EL FARUQI passed his preliminary examination for PhD Degree on May 8, 1950 but was not permitted to reregister for the 1951-1952 year. [redacted] stated that inquiry should be made of Professor [redacted] the Department of Philosophy in connection with the reason for the rule prohibiting FARUQI from reregistering.

b6
b7C

According to the University records, FARUQI was born January 1, 1921 at Jaffa, Palestine and recorded his home address as care of [redacted], Ministry of Public Works, Damascus, Syria.

b6
b7C

His father was recorded as ~~IBRAHIM ADHAMA EL FARUQI~~ and his mother as ~~RAIFAH M. A. EL FARUQI~~.

While at Harvard University he resided at 1673 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts and 282 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

In connection with his entrance to Harvard University, he was recommended by the following members of the University of Indiana faculty: [redacted], Assistant Professor of Philosophy, [redacted], Professor Law, [redacted], Assistant Professor of Education, [redacted], Graduate School.

b7C

Boston Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised the reporting Agent that FARUQI was a Palestinian Arab who attended Harvard University with private means of education, i.e., without Government grant or support. He was in the United States under a student visa and the refusal of the Harvard University authorities to permit him to reregister and complete his Doctorate was predicated upon academic reasons. (he was copying his thesis from theses previously submitted and on file in the University Library.)

This source had periodic contact with FARUQI during 1949-1950 and had no information of significance in connection with his background or interest.

The records of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Boston, Massachusetts, contained information relating to EL FARUQI under their file A-6-967442, the details of which have been previously set forth in connection with this investigation.

BS 105-639

On September 26, 1951 Immigration and Naturalization Service records recorded that EL FARUQI had returned to Indiana University and was residing at 1724 Hall Place, Indianapolis, Indiana. The INS file was being transferred to INS, Detroit, and EL FARUQI's stay in the United States was extended to June 30, 1952.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service file covering FARUQI will be transferred to the Immigration and Naturalization Service Office at Detroit, Michigan, inasmuch as the Boston Office, which covered his residence in the United States in connection with his educational program at Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, has granted him an extension of his stay to June 30, 1952. FARUQI's recorded residence as of September 26, 1951, was 1724 Hall Place, Indianapolis, Indiana. He is attending the Graduate School of Indiana University.

The records of the Registrar's Office, Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, disclose that EL FARUQI received an A.M. Degree at Harvard University during March, 1951, in connection with work in the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences in the field of philosophy and he passed a preliminary examination for a Ph.D. Degree on March 8, 1950. EL FARUQI was not permitted to re-register for the 1951-52 academic year due to academic reasons.

PURPOSE:

To recommend this investigation be closed prior to its completion in view of the unreliability of the original complainant.

DETAILS:

Investigation of subjects [redacted] was undertaken upon receipt by our Indianapolis Office of information from [redacted] to the effect that [redacted] violently attacked the world policies of the U. S. Government and made the remark that he felt it would have been far better had Germany won World War II and that he hoped the Communists would win the present struggle and that he would do all in his power to see that this was done. [redacted] stated the above remarks were made in the presence of [redacted] and that Isma-Il Faruqi shared the same views as [redacted]. She stated that [redacted] reportedly [redacted]. The report of Special Agent [redacted] dated November 13, 1951, at Indianapolis, reflects that an acquaintance of subjects and [redacted] described the latter as a vindictive and nervous person. This acquaintance further stated that [redacted] had some difficulty with [redacted] and did not like him.

In view of this the Chicago Office was requested to immediately interview [redacted] in an effort to confirm her statement of the remarks allegedly made in his presence by subject [redacted]. [redacted] stated he has no reason to believe that [redacted] were pro-Communist. He described Isma-Il Faruqi as being a thorough Arabian Nationalist and Capitalist, but he had no recollection of Isma-Il Faruqi ever having made any statement to the effect that he would take an active position against the United States or ever speak favorably of Russia. He recalled [redacted]

By letter to the District Director of INS at Detroit, Michigan, dated August 14, 1951, from the Central Office of INS, the district office was advised of the foregoing and directed to take appropriate action.

INS file number A6967442 was reviewed at Washington, D. C., with reference to ISMAIL RAGI A. EL FARUQI. The file contains an application for immigration visa and Alien Registration Number I-654421 dated September 8, 1948, at the American Consulate, Damascus, Syria. The subject applied under the name ISMA'IL R. FARUQI, a student, and the application was for a non-quota immigration visa as a student with a letter of acceptance from the Indiana University Graduate School. ISMA'IL FARUQI advised that he was born January 1, 1921, at Jaffa, Palestine, and that his nationality is Palestinian. His last permanent address was listed as Parliament Street, Damascus, Syria, and his destination was Indiana University Graduate School, Bloomington, Indiana. In addition, the application reflects that from 1936 to 1942 FARUQI resided at Beirut, Lebanon; from 1942 to 1948 at Jerusalem, Palestine, and from May of 1948 to the date of application at Damascus, Syria. He indicated a knowledge of Arabic, French, English, and German and advised that he was coming to the United States to study philosophy. FARUQI arrived in the United States at the port of New York on September 15, 1948, under the provisions of Section 4 (E) of the Immigration Act of 1924 and he was traveling on Non-quota Immigration Visa Number 20 and Passport Number 146021 issued to ISMAIL RAGI ABUL el FARUQI by the British High Commissioner at Jerusalem, Palestine, for the period extending from April 1, 1942, to April 1, 1949.

The INS file contains a negative police record and a medical certificate for ISMA'IL FARUQI in addition to a letter from the office of the Arab High Executive for Palestine dated September 4, 1948, certifying the subject's date and place of birth.

By letter dated September 30, 1949, from INS to ISMA'IL FARUQI, he was advised that permission had been granted for him to transfer from the University of Minnesota to Harvard University, and he was also advised that his records were being forwarded to the District Director, INS, 73 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

In addition, FARUQI's INS file contains address record cards reflecting the following addresses for the subject:

September 23, 1949 -- 1206 Southeast 5th Street, Minneapolis, Minnesota, to 419 Broadway, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

November 18, 1949 -- 1206 Southeast 5th Street, Minneapolis and previously 310 North Dunn, Bloomington, Indiana, to 1673 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts.

February 18, 1950 -- 419 Broadway, Cambridge, Massachusetts, to 1673 Cambridge Street in the same city.

August 18, 1950 -- 1673 Cambridge Street, Cambridge, Massachusetts, to care of the Ibsens, Lakeside, Flathead County, Montana.

The files of the Visa Division at the Department of State contained no record on either [redacted] or ISMALEL EL FAROUKI.

[redacted], Youth Activities Branch, Foreign Students Section, Division of Exchange of Persons, Department of State, advised SA [redacted] that her office has no record of [redacted] as a [redacted]

[redacted]. She stated that [redacted] is not a [redacted]. [redacted] suggested contacting the Institute of International Education at New York City in an effort to ascertain if [redacted] might be attending school under a private scholarship or similar program.
